The Art of Self-Promotion

In this program based on her book, Debby reveals the secrets to mastering the art of self-promotion and explains why this is a critical skill at every stage of a career path. Debby's message about the importance of authentic, graceful and confident self-promotion is applicable to everyone from recent graduates to mid-level professionals to C-suite executives across industries.

Navigating the Seven C's of Business Development

This session is ideal for lawyers and other professional service providers who struggle with business development. While incorporating the fundamentals, this program goes beyond the basics and covers the essentials that professionals need to know to become more successful at client development.

TEA in a Coffee World: Harnessing the Power of Time, Energy, and Attention

We live in a coffee-driven world. We push ourselves, we strive, and we are addicted to adrenaline. In this session, Debby tells how to harness the power of TEA - Time, Energy and Attention - to consciously direct the impact we have, the relationships we create and the results we achieve, more organically and naturally.

Finding J-O-Y in Your J-O-B

We spend the bulk of our waking lives at work, sometimes happily and sometimes feeling frustrated, disengaged and unfulfilled. In this program, Debby shares insights and practical tips she has gained through coaching hundreds of people toward more fulfilling work lives. This session is ideal for organizations that want to improve morale, engagement and productivity.
